Welcome to the incoming freshman Housing Selection Guide

This guide assists incoming freshman students with information related to the housing selection process, including how to complete a housing application, how to form a roommate group, and how the room assignment/confirmation portion of the process works.

All housing selection processes will be completed online through your RESIDENCE account. The Table of Contents page lists the categories of information related to the first-year housing selection process. Each category heading will act as a link to a specific section, allowing you to search for content faster. Each slide also contains a link back to the Table of Contents, as seen below.

Selecting and Creating Roommate Groups (1 of 3)

Things to keep in mind when creating roommate groups.

Do not feel pressured into accepting another invitation you have the right to reject an invitation at any time!

Make sure you and your chosen roommate have selected the same building and room preferences in your housing application or you will not be placed together.

You can contact the Office of Residence Life to assist you with changes to a housing application at any time.

If you are not sure about what building and room preferences you chose, simply log back into your RESIDENCE account at https://uapb-residence.symplicity.com, and you can review your submitted application.

You do not have to choose a roommate. However, if you decide not to select a roommate, a roommate assignment will be made for you according to the preferences you entered in your application
