

Medical Marijuana Information for Campuse

- A. Applicants should not be asked about their status as a qualifying patient during the hiring process.
  - B. In the event an employee discloses his or her status as a qualifying patient, the supervisor should consider whether there is a need for a reasonable accommodation or a need to initiate the interactive process. This decision should be based on the employee's underlying medical condition rather than his/her status as a qualifying patient.
- V. Employees who are injured on-the-job will remain subject to post-accident drug testing policies. In the event
